

Sewa according to Bhupinder Singh Kohli

Bhupinder Singh Kohli providing support to those in need (Bhupinder Singh Kohli)

Bhupinder Singh Kohli has given a new definition to the concept of Sewa by reaching out to the needy and disadvantaged. Whether it is linking the orphans with the inmates of Aged Care or building up a data base of blood donors or arranging the sample medicines to be picked up from hospitals and distributing it to the Charity Dispensaries, Bhupinder Singh has changed the traditional meaning of Sewa, which had begun to be looked upon as only being performed only in religious institutions. Listen to Bhupinder Singh's views who believes helping others has no boundaries whether geographical, religious, caste or any other...

Bhupinder Singh has been recognised for his immense contribution in supporting those in need with numerous awards. But his happiness lies in supporting the downtrodden whether it be the old, the orphans or the disadvantaged.

<http://www.sbs.com.au/yourlanguage/punjabi/highlight/page/id/249206/t/Sewa-according-to-Bhupinder-Singh-Kohli/in/english>